MR. DANIELS

Sympathy and Flowers Pour in on the North State Editor.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RALEIGH, N. C., June 1.—It is given out to-night that application will be made to-morrow in Washington before Judge Pritchard for a writ of habeas corpus for Editor Daniels, of the News and Observer. Chief Justice Fuller was approached by Daniels's counsel for the writ, but he suggested that as Judge Pritchard entered on his duties as Circult Court judge to-day, they had best apply to him. Pritchard, though, only apply to him. Pritchard, though, only reached Washington to-night, and will take up the matter to-morrow.

Ex-Governor Jarvis, James H. Pou and R. T. Gray are in Washington as counsel for Daniels. It is expected that notice will be received to carry the editor in contempt to Washington for the hearing.

OMNIBUS WRIT.

It is thought possible that a writ may be secured that will cause a review of the whole proceeding, including the Atlantic and North Carolina receivership matter.

Editor Daniels is still at Yarboro Hotel (cell 23, as he terms his quarters). A deputy marshal is again spending the night with him, but he was left to himself and his editorial work during the day. He and his guard walked out to Mr. and his editorial work during the day. He and his guard walked out to Mr.

EDITOR JOSEPHUS DANIELS.

Daniels's residence for some time tonight and stopped by the News and Observer office.

A great number of flowers, letters and teelgrams poured in to him to-day. One especially handsome bouquet was from Mrs. 'Ayecock, wife of the Governor.
PRESS BATTERIES.

H. B. Varney, commissioner of labor, who is vice-president of the .-atlonal Press Association, decided to-night that if the defense of Editor Daniels from the contempt sentence of Judge Purnell develops a need for such action, he will take rieps to have the National Editorial Association employ coursel to aid Daniels's attorneys in their fight before the Supreme Court judges at Washington for the writ of habeas corpus.

He is indignant at the course pursued by Judge Purnell, and published denuciary editorials in the Lexington Dispatch and Salisbury Globe, both papers owned by him.

CALL ON CHIEF JUSTICE

Daniels's Representatives Looking After His Case.

MASHINGTON. D. C., June 1.—R. T. Gray, of North Carolina, who is interested in the case of Josephus Danlels, editor of the Raleigh News and Observer, who was yesterday fined for contempt of court, arrived here to-day and was in consultation regarding the case with James H. Pou and ex-Governor Thomas James H. Pou and ex-Governor Thomas J. Jarvis, of North Carolina, who have been in Washington several days in con-nection with the recent receivership proceedings against the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad.

The three gentlemen called on Chief Justice Fuller, of the United States Sulverme Court, but decline absolutely to say anything for publication regarding the matter to-night, further than that up to this time no application had been made to any judge for any order in the case.

VIRGINIA

They said that certain papers bearing on it had been prepared in Raleigh and were now on their way here. They are expected to-morrow.

Governor Jarvis said no legal steps are contemplated until their arrival.

Wires Burned Down.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

ORANGE, VA., June 1.—The tail telegraph pole adjoining the telegraph tower in this place caught fire about noon yesterday and burned the arms on the top of the pole, and the large cable that connects all the wires to the office was burned and the wires fell to the ground.

Nearly all communication was cut off for some time.

The fire was caused by the short current being too strong and thus set fire to the large cable and the wires were soon disconnected.

Funeral of Mr. Smith. The last rites over the remains of Mr.

Captain C. J. Iredell is again at his desk in the office of State Auditor Dew after his annual holiday, spent at his home in Norfolk. He has entirely recovered from his recent indisposition.

UNEXPECTED STAY IN THE TRANSFER

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RALEIGH, N. C., June 1.—There was an unexpected hold-up in the transfer of the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad from Receivers Meares and McBee, who took charge yesterday, to the regular ofcers, under the supersedeas order of Chief Justice Fuller for the officers to file with Judge Purnell a $25,000 bond and retain management until the hearing of the Cuyler complaint.

The bond was made up and certified, before the clerk of Judge Purnell's court this morning, but when counsel walked into the court and tendered it. Colonel Argo, of counsel for the receivers, gave notice that they desired to be heard in opposition to the acceptance of the bond. Finally the hearing was set for 8 o'clock to-morrow, when they will contend among other things that the receivers having already taken charge when the order was served it cannot be effective, having no retrospective force.

Counsel on both sides are preparing for a battle royal to-morow.

In the meantime the receivers are run-so hard does it seem for the regime to hold it of late.

It was decided to night that the Supreme Court will hear the Kerr, Carroll and Southerland writs of habeas corpus in the Judge Peebles contempt proceedings at 3 o'clock to-morrow instead of 11 o'clock. Many witnesses are to arrive to night and to-morrow and the plan to night is to confine the hearing to a legal argument reviewing the whole contempt proceedings by Judge Peebles against the Robeson county Invyers out of which grew the habeas corpus writs through the ordering of the three men to jail for making affidavits charging Judge Peebles with drunkenness.

Champion Very Busy.

Sergeants Sowell and Bailey, the two athletes of the police department, put up great resistance against Champion Charles Reinecke at the Casino last hight, and showed by their work what able men they are physically. Both men, as amateur wrestlers, showed up in fine shape. They had been trained by Dwyer, and his method of wrestling was plainly shown in their style.

The articles were that the champion was to throw each of the sergeants once in half an hour. He was to make his selection by the toss of a coin. He won the toss and chose Bailey for the first fall. The start was fine, and it took five minutes to get him down. Bailey put up stiff resistance, and Reinecke's clever tactics were rebuffed at several points. The champion introduced several new movements, the most notable being the "swing hold." He caught the husky sergeant by the shoulder and legs, and gave him a swing in a circle, dropping him on the mat, with his shoulders down. But the sergeant was not pleased, and quick as a wink was over again.

the sergeant was not pleased, and quick as a wink was over again.

It took Reinecke seventeen minutes to put Bailey down, and he had his hands full all that time.

Sowell had that advantage over Reinecke at least.

When the two wrestlers got down on the mat, Sowell was above. He worked the Nelson and hammers, and kept Reincete governer all the time. the Reison and nammers, and kept reinecke guessing all the time.

As the time passed and Reinecke seemed to gain no advantage, the sergant's rriends urged him on, and at the twentyfive minute point it loowed like a fall.

But at twenty-nine and one-half min-utes Sowell went down, leaving Reinecke with hard earned laurels.

nineteen delegates to represent this place in the State convention. Five delegates were named from three of the wards and four from the Second. As there were no more candidates than delegates to be elected in any of the wards except the Third, this ward was the only one in which a primary was held, and the other candidates were declared delegates by the committee. In the Third Ward the vote was 19 to 19 in favor of nominating State officers by primaries, and all of the delegates in the city are either in favor of primarles or pledged to support the plan.

The entire delegation will stand for City plan.

The entire delegation will stand for City

NORFOLK, VA. June 1.—The City
Executive Committee to-night provided primaries to be held next Monday for selecting thirty-nine delegates to the State convention. The fight of the session was over the apportionment for the seven wards of the city. This fight was caused by recent changes in ward lines and the annexation of the Seventh Ward since 1900. The delegates were apportioned so as to give the annexed ward two delegates. The primary will be held from noon to 7 o'clock.

The action of the committee is a surprise, as it was expected that ward meet,

SERIOUS CHARGES AGAINST MR. WOOD

Light Committee Will Investigate Complaint of Neglect of Duty Next Wednesday Night

Another investigation has been ordered at the City Hall, and this time it relates to the Gas Department.

Mr. Joseph M. Shelton, gas inspector, has preferred charges of neglect of duty against Deputy Inspector William W. Wood, and after hearing the specificawood, and after nearing the specifications last night, the Committee on Light fixed next Wednesday night as the time for beginning the investigation, and ordered Mr. Wood to be present

Mr. Wood is well known in the city, and has been in the employ of the Gas Department for a number of years.

He has long been active in local politics, and was for a number of years president of the Old Dominion Demogratic Club. He was elected a delegate to the State convention from his precinct in the primaries held here recently.

It is not expected that other candidate will go into the convention with a sufficient number of votes to nominate, and in the event of a deadlock between Stedman and Glen, it is anybody's nomination. Friends of Josephus Daniels, the editor of the News and Observer, are discussing very freely the likelihood, in the event of a block among the regular candidates, of swinging off and giving the nomination to him, though this move is as yet spoken of as more of a possibility than a probability.

The contempt proceeding, it is claimed, is putting a big feather in his cap and making the "gubernatorial bee buzz" in his bonnet.

here to-day. He was forty-five years of ase.

Mr. Callaway was born in Toronto, Ontario. He entered the service of the Grand Trunk Railroad in 1884, became superintendent of the Detroit and Milwaukee in 1875 and manager of the Chicago and Grand Trunk in 1890. He next went to the Union Pacific as vice-president, and to the New York, Chicago and St. Louis as president. In 1897 he was elected president of the Loke Shore and Michigan Southern, and the following year he was placed at the head of the New York Central. In 1991 he resigned from the New York Central to accept the presidency of the American Locomotive Company.

Tany.

The death of Mr. Callaway has caused great surprise and regret throughout the business world of Richmond and the country generally. His illness was known to but a few. He had, however, been a great sufferer for several weeks, and yesterday morning at his home. No. 31 East Seventy-sixth Street, New York city, he died from an operation for mastoiditis. The funeral will be held to-morrow. The Richmond branch will be draped in mourning and will be closed on that day, Mr. Joseph Bryan, resident director; Mr. H. A. Gillis, superintendent of the plant, and other officess, will go to New York to attend the funeral.

A COSTLY HOME ALMOST IN SIGHT

Promise at Early Date of Great Union Railway Organization. Movement's Great Growth.

The Railway Young Men's Christian Association of this city, having its head-quarters at the Main Street Station, though but thirty months old, has a mem. bership of 755. As soon as this number is increased to 800 it is the purpose of the bership of 75. As soon as this number is increased to 800 it is the purpose of the projectors, officers and members of the association to press to realization the construction of a Railroad Association building for the joint use of all the rail ways of the city, and which will cost from thirty to forty thousand dollars. With less than fifty new members necessary to attain the eight hundred membership mark, the time for the inauguration of the campaign for the building is not far away.

The association as it now exists is confined chiefly to the employes of the Chesapeake & Ohio and Seaboard Air Line Railways. Under the direction of Secretary S. L. Thomas, who has been in charge since the association was opened, the institution has flourished and grown remarkably and is doing a great work among the railroad employes. The officers of the railway lines whose employes are the beneficiaries of the institution, unhesitatingly testify to the usefulness of the Young Men's Christian Association in railway work.
